GARY POLICEMAN IN DOUBLE TRAGEDY

side business district, and was witnessed by scores. Juric's victim was his former wife, now known as Annie Kasstau. Although they had been divorced four months ago, he continued to board at her home.

At the time of the shooting Juric's former wife was on the way to a dance with Mr. and Mrs. William Marquardt. Juric, they had noticed, had been following them.

Quarrel Over Dance.
At Eighteenth avenue and Broadway he called the woman aside and the Marquardts stepped on a few paces. Then they heard the police officer tell his wife that she mustn't go to the dance and they heard her reply that she would. Loud words ensued and thinking that a quarrel was about to ensue the Marquardts moved further away from the scene. Marquardt used to be a member of the Gary police force.

Two Shots End Two Lives.
Suddenly a shot rang out and the woman dropped to the street dead. A bullet had pierced her heart. Then Juric pointed his police pistol at his own breast and pulled the trigger, firing another shot.

Marquardt rushed back but he did not think that Juric himself was shot. As he reached his side the detective toppled over. It was found that death had probably been instantaneous with the woman but Juric still had a trace of life in him. Police headquarters were notified, an ambulance hurried to the scene and Juric was placed in it and the vehicle turned about to go post haste to the Gary General hospital. But the ambulance had only gone a few blocks when the player passed away. Chief Martin and other commanding

FOR NERVOUSNESS

Nervousness comes from nerve exhaustion, an unhealthy condition of the nerves of some part of the body, usually caused by lack of nerve nourishment. If you are nervous, you need a nerve food—something to tone and strengthen your nerves. Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion is the ideal nerve-food tonic, a real medicine for the nerves, a real builder of strength and health for the blood and every part of the system. It is not a stimulant. It contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs, as many so-called "tonics" do that stimulate your heart and muscles for a short time after taking, only to leave you weaker and worse off than before. It is a real medicine, containing ingredients necessary to overcome your weakness and nervousness, and give you new strength and life and health to every part. It may not make you feel better the first day, because the nerve and tissue foods it contains need time to get into the blood before the good work of up-building can begin. But it will make you feel better and less nervous before you have taken anywhere near as much of it as you have of other things that did you nothing but harm. If it does not—if it fails to satisfy you in every way, we want you to tell us so and get your money back.

You who who are weak and run-down, and you who are apparently well now, but are liable to suffer from various cold weather ailments, use Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion to get and keep well and strong. For the tired-out, run-down, nervous, emaciated or debilitated—the convalescing—growing children—aged people—it is a sensible aid to renewed strength, better spirits, glowing health.
Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion—king of the celebrated Rexall Remedies—is for freedom from sickness of you and your family. Pleasant-tasting—unlike the cod liver oil preparations—you'll be as enthusiastic about it as we are when you have noted its strengthening, invigorating, building-up, disease-preventing effects. If it does not help you, your money will be given back to you without argument. Sold in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—one of more than 7,000 leading drug stores in the United States, Canada and Great Britain—Lion Store Pharmacy, Kaufmann & Wolf, Prop., Hammond, Ind., and Central Pharmacy, W. officers were in the station when the news of the double shooting came in and they rushed to the scene in the auto patrol. A big crowd was attracted by the tragedy. Chief Martin rode beside Juric on the last dash to the hospital.

The remains of the man and woman were taken to Finerty's morgue, Seventh avenue and Washington street.

Married Life Is Stormy.
It appears that the matrimonial history of the Juric's was a stormy one. More than a year ago violent trouble broke out between the couple and Juric left home, his wife threatening to get a divorce. But he effected a reconciliation with her and returned to their home at Twenty-third avenue and Connecticut street, which they owned.

Last summer their troubles were renewed and Mrs. Juric sued for and obtained a divorce and $40 alimony. Despite this Juric once more returned to the woman, who had adopted her maiden name of Kasstau, and came into the home as a boarder, paying $7 a week, besides the alimony. In addition to this he presented his former wife with an expensive stove.

Fearful a Hard Winter.
Only a few days ago Juric remarked at the police station that he feared that he would not be able to support himself and pay alimony during the winter, as he would lose his police job on January 5, when there is to be a change of administration at the city hall. And on top of this his wife said that he would have to either pay more board or get out.

Would See Judge Reiter.

"I am going over to see Judge Reiter at Hammond, and see if I can't get him to reduce the alimony I have to pay," Juric said to a brother officer a few days ago. He said this as he was worrying for his chances after January 5. During the past four years, Juric, who also served as court mailiff, received a salary of $1,320 a year and he wasn't so sure of getting another position with pay anywhere near this.

One of First Policemen.

Juric joined the police department in 1907, a year after it founding, and was rated as one of its most efficient officers. He had a wide knowledge of the Slavic languages and had effected many important captures. In 1909 he was the democratic candidate for alderman from the Fourth ward, but was defeated by eight votes. For the past five years he had been a member of the Lake county democratic central committee, rendering that body some very important work. At the station Juric was very popular as he was an unusually courteous officer. He held the high regard of Mayor Knotts and his superior officers.

Believes Him Unbalanced.

"I think that Peter was unbalanced when he did the killing," said Chief Martin after the tragedy last night. "He hasn't been himself lately. Juric was one of the best officers of the department."

Yesterday Detective Juric assisted a

ATTENTION!

As we stand upon the threshold of the twentieth century, amidst the splendors and glories of modern achievements, and review all the factors that make up the sum total of the highest civilization this world has ever known, we note one factor looming conspicuously beyond all the rest: "The Art of Healing."

The word Chiropractic (Ki-ro-prac-tic) is a combination of two Greek words, meaning to do by hand. A Chiropractor, is one who, by his trained and skillful knowledge in the art of adjusting, releases the pressure of one or more of the thirty-one pairs of nerves emanating from the spinal column, removing the cause of 85 per cent of all the so-called diseases or afflictions. Thereby in assisting nature in restoring the normal nerve tonicity of the whole system, hence health.

No matter what your trouble is, call it gall stones, appendicitis, paralysis, locomotor ataxia, nervousness, rheumatism, malaise, stomach and liver trouble, or whatever you please.

TIMES reporter in getting some facts in the Ricovich murder, which occurred some hours before. On account of his linguistic abilities Juric was requested to act as interpreter with Joe Pavolich, held as a witness of the murder. When he opened the cell door, he said to the prisoner:

"You are lucky to be in a cell," stating this to Pavolich, who is held on a murder charge. Whether at this time Juric contemplated taking his former wife's life and then ending his own is not known, but his remarks indicate that Pavolich merely got a cell for his slaying (if he did it) while Juric was about to take a life and would pay a greater penalty by following his victim to the grave that very night.

Juric was 42 years old and his victim 35 years of age. Funeral arrangements are expected to be made today. The police department will be in charge.

JUDICIAL CASE ON TRIAL

only after a prosecutor has been convicted of a felony, and as Prosecutor Patterson has not even been charged with a felony, that therefore there can be no impeachment against him.

According to the program, Judge Gillett was to be followed by Attorney George Hershman of Crown Point, who represents the attorney general's office and who has for his co-counsel, Otto Bruce and the members of the firm of Nye and Davis.

The defense opened this morning by asking that the last paragraph section nine of the impeachment proceedings be made more specific. This section said in a general way that Patterson had neglected his official duties.

The state thereupon made the section more specific by bringing in more of the Hobart slot machine cases and added two additional sections, the first of which cites Gary conditions, and the last of which charges that he permitted his friends to profit by permitting houses of prostitution and gamblers to operate.

If Judge Greenlee upholds the constitutionality of the law the first evidence will be introduced tomorrow morning.
